

CENTENNIAL

Bred in 1974 and released by Washington State University in 1990, Centennial is an aroma-type cultivar that has found favor as one of the most popular varieties in craft brewing. It is often referred to as a super-Cascade (containing nearly double the alpha content) and can be used for bittering purposes. Centennial is a diploid cross between Brewer's Gold and a USDA male.

AROMA PROFILE

LEMON • ORANGE • TROPICAL FRUIT
FLORAL • WOOD

BEER STYLES

IPA • AMERICAN PALE ALE

BREWING VALUES

TOTAL OIL BREAKDOWN (% OF TOTAL OIL)

