

CASCADE

Originating from the USDA-ARA breeding program, Cascade is an aroma-type cultivar bred in 1956 and released in 1972. It was developed by open pollination of a Fuggle seedling. Cascade is the most popular variety in craft brewing and is known for having a unique floral, spicy and citrus character with balanced bittering potential.

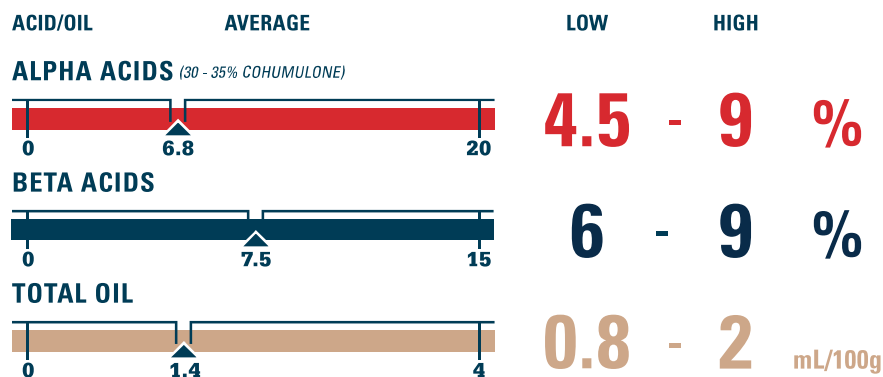

AROMA PROFILE

GRAPEFRUIT • FLORAL • PINE • GRASS HERBAL

BEER STYLES

IPA • AMERICAN PALE ALE

BREWING VALUES

TOTAL OIL BREAKDOWN (% OF TOTAL OIL)

